users. The development meets the needs of each user in addition to incorporating neighboring amenities such as the Promenade and the City of Westminster park system. The Promenade is a retail development that contains 100,000 square feet of restaurants, a 24-screen AMC movie theater, an ice arena and a 369-room Westin Hotel with a 35,000 square foot conference room.

Financial Structure

The City of Westminster sought a visually appealing development at its gateway and took steps to ensure development success by providing financial support. Along with partnering with Catellus on the development's master plan, the city created a $12 million Metro District to fund the infrastructure. Catellus arranged for more than $30 million in financing for the construction of the site's first two office buildings.
